SUNDAY INTRODUCTIONS

First reading Ezekiel 18:25-28
 Our reading today represents a break in biblical teaching or at least an evolution. Previous, it was commonly held that God punishes "to the third and fourth generations." Ezekiel, for the first time, teaching individual responsibility.

Second reading Philippians 2:1-11
 Today, we hear an ancient poem or hymn, pre-dating St Paul's use of it. It gives us a window on how the very first generation of Christians prayed.

Gospel Matthew 21:28-32
 The parable is blindingly obvious—and the application sharp. Don't let the message remained locked in the past. The parable does indeed speak to us today.

The Carmelite Sisters invite you to a
