

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Cry out with joy to God, all the earth;
O sing to the glory of his name.
O render him glorious praise, alleluia.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

COLLECT

May your people exult for ever, O God,
in renewed youthfulness of spirit,
so that, rejoicing now in the restored glory of our adoption,
we may look forward in confident hope
to the rejoicing of the day of resurrection.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

FIRST READING Acts 3:13-15, 17-19

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Peter said to the people: "You are Israelites, and it is the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the God of our ancestors, who has glorified his servant Jesus, the same Jesus you handed over and then disowned in the presence of Pilate, after Pilate had decided to release him. It was you who accused the Holy One, the Just One, you who demanded
the reprieve of a murderer while you killed
the prince of life. God, however, raised him from the dead, and to that fact we are the witnesses.

"Now I know, brothers, that neither you nor your leaders had any idea what you were really doing; this was the way God carried out what he had foretold, when he said through all his prophets that his Christ would suffer. Now you must repent and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out."

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM Ps 4

Response:
Lift up the light of your face on us, O Lord.
or Alleluia!

1 When I call, answer me, O God of justice;
from anguish you released me, have mercy and hear me! (R.)

2 It is the Lord who grants favours to those whom he loves;
the Lord hears me whenever I call him.
(R.)

3 "What can bring us happiness?" many
say.
Lift up the light of your face on us,
O Lord. (R.)

4 I will lie down in peace and sleep comes at once,
for you alone, Lord, make me dwell in safety. (R.)

SECOND READING 1 Jn 2:1-5

A reading from the first letter of St John.

I am writing this, my children,
to stop you sinning;
but if anyone should sin,
we have our advocate with the Father,
Jesus Christ, who is just;
he is the sacrifice that takes our sins away,
and not only ours,
but the whole world's.
We can be sure that we know God
only by keeping his commandments.
Anyone who says, "I know him",
and does not keep his commandments,
is a liar,
refusing to admit the truth.
But when anyone does obey what he has said,
God's love comes to perfection in him.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Lord Jesus, explain the scriptures to us.
Make our hearts burn within us as you talk
to us.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL Lk 24:35-48

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

The disciples told their story of what had happened on the road and how they had recognised Jesus at the breaking of bread.

They were still talking about this when Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you!" In a state of alarm and fright, they thought they were seeing a ghost. But he said, "Why are you so agitated, and why are these doubts rising in your hearts? Look at my hands and feet;
yes, it is I indeed. Touch me and see for yourselves; a ghost has no flesh and bones as you can see I have." And as he said this he showed them his hands and feet. Their joy was so great that they could not believe it,
and they stood dumbfounded; so he said to them, "Have you anything here to eat?" And they offered him a piece of grilled fish, which he took and ate before their eyes.

Then he told them, "This is what I meant when I said, while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the Law of Moses, in the Prophets and in the Psalms, has to be fulfilled." He then opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, "So you see how it is written that the Christ would suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that, in his name, repentance for the forgiveness of sins would be preached to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses to this."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with
the Father;

through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(all bow during the next three lines)

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life,

who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored
and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness
of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Receive, O Lord, we pray,
these offerings of your exultant Church,
and, as you have given her cause for such
great gladness,
grant also that the gifts we bring
may bear fruit in perpetual happiness.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

The Christ had to suffer and on the third day
rise from the dead;
in his name repentance and remission of sins
must be preached to all the nations, alleluia.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Look with kindness upon your people,
O Lord,
and grant, we pray,
that those you were pleased to renew by eternal mysteries
may attain in their flesh
the incorruptible glory of the resurrection.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Sunday Message

THE WORD

Stained glass window in the 15th-century Elzenveld Chapel in Antwerp, Belgium, depicting Jesus and two disciples at Emmaus

Our gospel passage follows the encounter of the two disciples with the risen Jesus on the way to Emmaus and his making himself known to them in a setting with a Eucharistic background.

The episode today echoes the previous reading from John, in which Jesus makes himself present to the group of disciples in Jerusalem. Cleopas and his possibly female companion have to return to the holy city, because that is the place where God's plan of redemption is to be worked out and, as yet, it is not completed: that will come with Pentecost.

The appearance of Jesus emphasises that he is the same person as was crucified and laid in the tomb. The detail that he ate the piece of grilled fish 'in their presence' is an indication that the disciples are authentic witnesses to the resurrection: it is the same Jesus whom they knew before the crucifixion, but now he is transformed; he is not a ghost or a resuscitated corpse. The mention of fish recalls the feeding of the five thousand, which has Eucharistic overtones.

The risen Jesus then "opens their minds to understand the scriptures", another Eucharistic allusion. The earlier Emmaus episode shows the importance of the Hebrew Scriptures in making sense of the story of Jesus. Here the same message is reinforced, underlining that the paschal event is part of God's plan.

Luke's gospel narrative of Jesus is set in the context of a journey with Jerusalem as its focus: Jesus now tells the disciples that Jerusalem will become the hub from which the preaching of the Gospel will radiate out to the whole world. But not quite yet: the Holy Spirit will be the driving force and the Spirit has still to come. ■

DO

Look up the references in the Jewish Scriptures to some Sunday gospel passage. See if this helps your understanding of the reading and, more importantly, of the person of Jesus.

REFLECT

Luke is concerned to show that the risen Jesus is present when his disciples gather together to share a meal in his memory. The three essential elements in this celebration are setting what happened to Jesus in the context of the Hebrew Scriptures and the breaking of bread.

In our Sunday readings, the first reading and the gospel are thematically linked: sometimes the connection is more obvious than on other occasions, but the fundamental point remains, that the gospels can only be fully understood against the background of what we usually call the Old Testament. A homily is an explanation of the Scripture readings: a sermon is more of a class or lecture on some specific point of Church teaching. It is an interesting point from the Emmaus story that Cleopas and his companion are homilising as they make their way from Jerusalem to Emmaus. They are focussed on Jesus and what happened to him, but, without the Hebrew Scriptures, this remains an insoluble puzzle. The same message is forcefully conveyed in today's passage.

There is much more interest now in Catholic circles in the study of the Bible: a version with cross-references in the margin is a great help in making the links between gospel passages and their Hebrew counterparts. ■

LEARN

In the Bible, people never discover God: God always reveals Godself.

The official teaching of the Catholic Church places the Scriptures in the context of God's self-revelation as the Word of God.

The liturgy of the Word is an essential element in the celebration of the Eucharist and of equal importance to the sacramental part.

SAY

The Word of our God stands for ever.

Do This in Memory of Me Mass

17th & 18th April

This weekend the boys and girls in our Parish schools gather online to celebrate Mass at 6pm on Saturday and 11.30 on Sunday to continue with their preparation for their First Holy Communion.

We remember them and join with them in the prayer and support as they continue on their faith journey.

Help decorate our Lady's altar with your artwork

Do you have children, grandchildren, nieces or nephews who enjoy colouring in? We are looking for colourful pictures to decorate our Lady's Altar for the month of May.

You can download the drawings from the website or there are copies available by Our Lady's Altar for you to take and colour in at home.

Happy Colouring

Mass Cards are available in the Church with an envelope for you to put your intention on. Please place in the safe once filled in.

A few words from Fr Joe.....

What's the best expression to use when speaking respectfully of a feisty senior member of the parish? I'm really not sure, so I will simply say, a lady came into the office to ask for a Mass card during the week. Shubert, in Vivienne's absence, was quick to show her the stand with its impressive array of cards. There she browsed, picked first one card, then another, holding a couple she liked between two fingers, slipping one back, taking a different one. A really careful process of choosing the most preferred card for the intention in her mind.

As I passed by, observing this, I compliment her choice and said how happy I was that the bookshop provided us with such nice cards, not too pious, very reverent and attractive. 'Well' she said, they could be a little more colourful, cheerful, uplifting! Indeed, you're right, said I, as she went onto explain that the Mass card brings such a message of hope, that everything about it should communicate, brightly and strongly, JOY.

It was such a nice moment, to hear the conviction and strength of faith behind the sending of the Mass card. As it happened the particular intention was to send birthday greetings to a friend, and of course the occasion is joyful and the card should be too. But behind the image on the front and words inside, was the intention of a woman of deep faith, connecting her greeting, with her trust in the gift of the Risen Lord shared in the Eucharist. It was a simple encounter, that lasted just a couple of minutes, but it has stayed with me during the week, in a joyful and uplifting way. Thanks to all who share their faith and hope when sharing a Mass intention.

Easter Dues

Thank you to everyone who has sent in their Easter Dues.

There are envelopes available at the back of the Church

Envelopes can left in the safes in the Church or in to Presbytery Number 2, Church Grounds.

Thank you for your ongoing support
