'Trinity of Faith'
 As per previous messages, work has been ongoing on confirming a working name for our Parish Partnership, with sincere thanks for all the feedback from the initial suggestion.

It has been agreed that our Parish Partnership will be named the 'Trinity of Faith Partnership' from next Tuesday 1st April, with a probable new website URL of www.trinityoffaith.ie. Work is also ongoing on preparing an emblem for this name which will include reference to the specific parishes - Clonskeagh, Kilmacud and Mount Merrion - within this.

It is hoped that a future new Website and a future new set of notices for the back of our missalettes will be common to all three Parishes of the Partnership and this will be progressed in the coming weeks, with further updates to come.

 Pray for the soul of Kevin Considine (Lakelands) Thomas Cuddihy (Leopardstown Road) & Jarlath Cunniffe

A few words from Fr Joe

Bright sunny days, blues skies and long evenings probably make everyone just a little more cheerful and upbeat, certainly they have lifted my heart this past week. I've also been really delighted to share the Sacrament of Confirmation with the candidates from our parish schools, their parents, sponsors and wider families. Coming at the end of their primary education, and just before adolescence, the young people are very happy, stable and full of life. They are so aware of the love which supports them day by day and are discovering their own gifts and talents. Little by little they can see how they forge friendships, develop skills and grow both in body and in spirit. As they are on the cusp of the next stage of life's journey, they open their hearts to the Spirit of God, take a name that means something to them and choose a sponsor to whom they feel a bond of affection and trust. They are a sign of the living church, of hope and if we can harness their spiritual energy our future is strong.

Survey to assist the Dublin Diocese

Dear Parishioner, you are invited to take part in this brief pilot survey. Your feedback will be important in shaping our future plans here and across all parishes in the Archdiocese of Dublin.

As Parishes/Parish Partnerships and the broader Church evolves (for example Mass attendance, lay participation, youth engagement), we aim to better understand the willingness of parishioners and others to increase their participation in the life and mission of the Church.

- The survey:
- ✓ Is anonymous
 - ✓ Will take no more than 5-10 minutes to complete - please do so by Monday, 7 April

Responses will be reviewed by CCS Fundraising, the consulting firm which is helping us with this project, and will be used to inform our collective decisions.

Feedback gathered will be used solely for the purposes outlined above, and will be deleted following completion of the project

With gratitude we bid farewell to Sr. Maureen Enibe, MC of the Clarissan Missionary sisters of the Blessed Sacrament.

She has served in their community on Waltersland Road, Stillorgan since October 2015, where they run accommodation for college students. During this time, Sr Maureen has been active in our parish community. Besides other services she has served as reader and as a member of the Parish Pastoral Council. As a missionary she has been re-assigned to their community in Madrid. Please join us at 11.30am Mass on April 6th to pray and wish her well in her new mission. Thank you, Sr. Maureen and your community, for your time and services in Kilmacud Parish.
